I had a pre-screening test at one of their offices. It was pretty straight forward and didn't take long. After that, I was called in to have an in-person interview with one of the managers in the marketing department. Interview was about 40 mins. Questions were pretty straight forward and the woman who interviewed me was very friendly.

Most people who have mild symptoms can recover at home without medical care. If you'd like to get tested for a diagnosis, contact your healthcare provider or schedule an appointment at a publicly accessible testing site.. If you do not want to get tested, it's still important to stay home, isolate and avoid contact with others, rest, and drink fluids.
